THE PENFOLDS COLLECTION 2018

2014 PENFOLDS GRANGE

"There is an extraordinary chypre and warm earth note about this wine which leads the way and the fruit follows on minutes behind dutifully allowing the vine and its wood and earth to take centre stage... this is an elite wine and it parades its anti-fruit notes as much as it does its grape-derived flavours. This points to a massive ageing potential and also the patience required to appreciate this wine at its peak which I feel might be in thirty or more years' time."

20++/20 - Matthew Jukes

Peak Drinking: 2020 - 2045

2015 ST HENRI SHIRAZ

"A St Henri of character, depth and room-filling exuberance. The great 2015 season has yielded a wine of deep, dark, spicy fruit presence that entices from the outset. It's framed consummately in firm, fine tannin structure that propels its glorious fruit fanfare and promises effortless life in the cellar, lingering with undeterred line and great persistence."

96 points - Tyson Stelzer

Peak Drinking: 2020 - 2045

2017 RESERVE BIN A ADELAIDE HILLS CHARDONNAY

"Pale colour. Highly evocative wine with intense grapefruit, white apricot flinty aromas with grilled nut complexity. Generous and creamy with grapefruit, apricot, white peach stone fruit flavours, light marzipan, flinty notes and underlying savoury oak complexity; all intertwined with fine lacy textures, crisp acidity and superb mineral length. This is absolutely at the cutting edge of Australian Chardonnay. An exquisite balance of fruit definition, texture and mouthwatering freshness. Delicious wine."

98 points - Andrew Caillard MW

Peak Drinking: Now - 2028

2016 BIN 389 CABERNET SHIRAZ 2016

"... 51% cabernet sauvignon, 49% shiraz. All american oak. You look at the Bin 407 release from this vintage and think: that's how it's done. And then you add shiraz ... and the palate boosted, the length is still there, the tobacco notes still light up, and with vanilla and cherry plum notes tickling the cassis into a riot suddenly feels irrepressible... It's a cracker. This is why you blend cabernet with shiraz."

96 points - Campbell Mattinson, The Wine Front
Peak Drinking: 2020 - 2046

2016 BIN 128 COONAWARRA SHIRAZ

"Striking hue, depth and clarity; the bouquet and palate sing in unison with a rich brocade of black cherry and stitches of cedary French oak (ex 30% new hogsheads) and fine-grained tannins. Its balance and length are impeccable."

96 points - James Halliday

Peak Drinking: 2019 - 2035

2016 KALIMNA® BIN 28 SHIRAZ

"Medium deep crimson. Classic dark chocolate dark berry aromas with roasted walnut, shellac notes. Lovely fresh inky, mulberry, blackberry fruits, fine looseknit chocolaty tannins, and underlying roasted nut/savoury notes. Finishes chocolatey and long with red liquorice, aniseed nuances. A very stylish "go-to" claret type with all of the hallmarks of the Penfolds house style. Ripe fruit, richness of flavour, concentration and chocolaty textures. Although drinking well, keep for a few years."

95 points - Andrew Caillard MW

Peak Drinking: 2022 - 2034
