PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Written by Valentino Migliaccio

Over the past 30 years, I have been fortunate to see the operations of football coaches at the highest level first-hand.

As a former journalist for NewsCorp Australia and contracted to Host Broadcast Services, the TV broadcasting organisation for FIFA World Cup tournaments, Asian Cups, and for the Olympic Games, I have been observing how clubs and national teams operate, from outside their bubbles, while doing a job which I loved.

This brings me to the point of coaching which - depending on how his or her team is performing - can either be the most rewarding job or one where there it's a very tough gig.

However, there is no doubt coaches are critical to the well-being of any football club operation. I have met, interviewed and became a conduit for several first-class coaches over the past three decades.

Adelaide City legend Aurelio Vidmar is a shining example.

More about Viddie later.

It brings me to the point of our club's leading senior coaches Tiarn Powell and Paul Pezos.

Tiarn is a first-year coach and Paul has earned respect by winning several trophies including the treble with Adelaide City last year.

I have learned through my journey and have been advised by those firmly entrenched in the game at the top level to allow coaches to do their work in their inner sanctum without distractions from the outside.

That includes the hierarchy, media scrutiny and everything else that could alter their focus and team plans but at the same time, there is always mutual respect.

Part of my job in the media was to delve into the inner sanctum of teams which was very rewarding and at other times confrontational as I tried to inform readers and my superiors what was going on inside a football bubble.

Through my experience and mostly now on the 'other side of the media,' I am a firm believer in leaving key decisions to the coaching experts that are trusted to do their jobs.

At a luncheon with Tiarn and Paul earlier this year we discussed the needs of both coaches regarding their valuable tools including squad strength, support staff and other items for the season.

Not delving into the inner workings of their football departments and ensuring they have the freedom to coach their teams and have a successful season was what I endorsed from the start and continue to do so.

We left the luncheon with my intentions made clear, I am a phone call away if Paul or Tiarn need help for any matter - anytime.

Liz Zikos, our club's women's football director and Angelo Carrozza, our men's football director, deal directly with Tiarn and Paul for all football matters and I see this as ideal for our club.

Liz and Angelo report to the board as part of the process to help our coaches achieve their very best.

I am an observer from afar and a fan of all our teams at Adelaide City.

It brings me back to Aurelio.

His rise to becoming one of the best coaches in Asia during Adelaide United's incredible run towards the 2008 AFC Champions League final which earned the Reds a ticket at the FIFA Club World Cup was at the time extremely underrated.

I was on that journey representing NewsCorp seeing just how difficult it was for Vidmar and his men especially travelling abroad where one destination took almost 36 hours from the time they left Australia to landing in Tashkent, Uzbekistan for a Champions League semi-final.

Aurelio and his men, a few months earlier, encountered one of the most hostile environments I have seen in football when the Reds faced Chanchung Yatai in China.

From the difficulty of scheduling training sessions in Changchung to scenes where some of the crowd launched seats and missiles at the Reds where an object aimed at the side smacked into former Adelaide midfielder Kristian Sarkies's mouth, seconds after the team qualified for the knockout stage of the Champions League.

One of Vidmar's strengths was in his ability to keep his side focussed and away from distractions that had no relevance towards his end goal of being the best in Asia.

His leadership was inspirational.

I had also had a close encounter with Marcelo Bielsa, the coach of Argentina at the 2002 FIFA World Cup, where as part of my job at HBS, I escorted him to the mixed media zone where the angry Argentine press called for his head there and then when the national team was knocked out of the tournament after their last group stage match.

Bielsa rose above the controversy to become one of the new-wave masterminds of football winning gold with Argentina at the 2004 Athens Games before locking himself away in a convent for a long period, claiming being knocked out of the World Cup was the saddest day of his life.

I was also in the Yokohama TV studio after Brazil coach Felipe Scolari led the Selecao to the FIFA World Cup title in Yokohama in 2002 celebrating with the new world champions.

He was king of the world, a man that was super strong in all aspects.

Four years later he led Portugal to fourth place at the Germany 2006 FIFA World Cup after taking the side to the Euro 2004 final.

It was working at the World Cup where I indeed observed how Guus Hiddink led the Socceroos in 2006 - with an iron fist.

Gossip and innuendo always abound but these coaches focussed only on the tasks at hand.

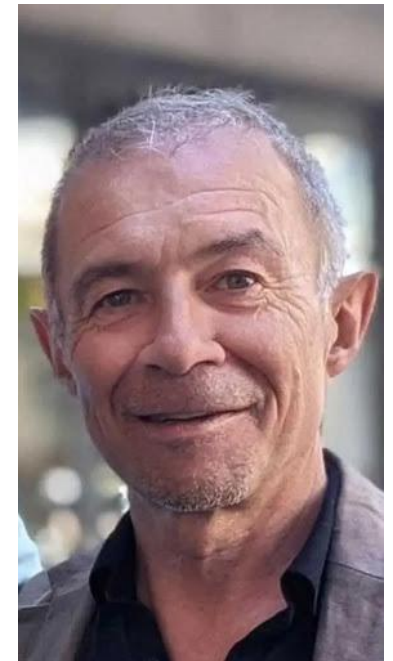

Every coach is different, but they must also have freedom to do their work unhindered.

This brings me back to Tiarn and Paul.

They have had the club's full support for 2023 which has been a challenging league season.

I sincerely wish for a better second half to their seasons and to have the freedom Adelaide City has given them to achieve their very best for the football club.

Together we're stronger.

ATALANTA BC AFFILIATION REPORT

Written by Domenico Gangemi

Dear Adelaide City family,

The affiliation with Atalanta BC is starting to take shape in the best interests of giving Adelaide City's juniors a legitimate pathway.

This is the result of the hard work of the Adelaide City coordinators and board members.

We are excited to announce that Atalanta BC is ranked in the top 5 football academies in Europe.

The coaching education for Adelaide City's juniors coaches commenced on Thursday May 18.

With several workshops throughout the season we will embrace Atalanta BC's philosophy and methodological approach to how to coach Adelaide City's children.

It's a huge opportunity to learn from Atalanta BC as leaders of youth development.

During my visit to Adelaide in early June, I will start to identify some talent born in 2008 and 2009 who can be invited to be part of the Atalanta BC Australian team who will play in Italy in October against the pro-youth clubs.

This is an exciting opportunity for players and coaches.

CITY WOMEN WITH LIZ ZIKOS

Written by Liz Zikos

Female Football Week is a nation-wide initiative which will take place from Friday May 19 to Sunday May 28, 2023.

It is aimed at promoting female participation and celebrating the contributions of women and girls across all parts of the game.

In 2023, Football South Australia will celebrate Female Football Week on Friday May 19 at Service FM Stadium. The theme #LoveOurGame is a celebration of Australian women's football and encourages participants to embrace their love for the game and its positive impacts. FSA will be organising a photo of "past, present, future" on the main pitch. Our Adelaide City under 7 MiniRoos girls team will be playing their Round 4 game on Friday night as part of the celebrations.

It provides an important platform for discussion on how we can continue to drive female participation at all levels of the game, something which is a strong focus for FSA and Adelaide City as we work to grow the women's game across the state in the lead-up to and beyond the FIFA Women's World Cup 2023. With Australia and New Zealand hosting the World Cup in a few months, this celebration is extra special and is an incredible opportunity to showcase the talent and passion of female footballers, coaches, referees and volunteers in the community.

Personally, I applied to be a volunteer for the World Cup and have accepted a volunteer role driving FIFA Family constituents, ranging from VIPs, referees, competition officials to members of the FIFA workforce.

I look forward to sharing my experience with you in future editions of the Gazzebra.

CITY MEN WITH ANGE CARROZZA

Written by Angelo Carrozza

Welcome to Adelaide City and all visiting fans.

We are now at the halfway point of the season, and sitting mid table. It's not where we had earmarked to be. There are many contributing factors, but as a group the boys are well versed to where they are at and where they need to be in the second half of the season.

As reigning NPL Champions, we were always going to be 'the hunted' but unexpected injuries have impacted our ability to take home valuable points.

We had a hard fought 1-0 win over derby rivals West Adelaide and we were very pleased with so many youngsters that were part of the squad.

Alex Battistella started and was instrumental in the assist which saw Nicholas Bucco score the winning goal.

Our bench was made up of so many exciting young players including Nicholas Robinson 18, Dion Tsimpoulos 17, Luca Fabrizio 17, Isaac Martini 18, Henry Filsell and Cosmo Groff who are no strangers to the senior team.

We are preparing for a strong second half of season 2023.

The belief within the playing and coaching group is evident at training and I expect that we will be well positioned to play finals later on in the year.

DAKOTA'S JOURNEY IN FOOTBALL

Written by Dakota Ochsenham

My name is Dakota Ochsenham and I am the goalkeeper for Adelaide City.

My journey with City has been nothing short of invigorating. My debut for the club was against Melbourne Victory in the Australia Cup match in 2021, and thus far has climaxed in the treble winning season of last year.

Here's a little snapshot of my footballing history: Being tall, and having a little experience of goalkeeping as a kid, my brother needed a fill-in in his Collegiate League team, Grads Red.

I was 16.

I performed well, and finding their comradery enlivening, I stuck around the club for another season, failing to turn out to training but arriving for match day (and the post-match barbeques). It was here that I won my first championship, of which my taste for glory has not departed - watch out MetroStars.

The executive of the Grads 'kicked me out' for greener pastures, and I signed with West Adelaide at age 18.

After a successful personal stint at West Adelaide, Paul Pezos, our current head coach and the then coach of United's youth team, phoned and I was signed by Adelaide United less than 13 months after my Grads Red experience.

How fast things change in this world!

Here's an aside.

I value independence highly. The first day of graduating high school I moved into an apartment with my brother and have never looked back. Couches and bookshelves sitting on the side of the road assume a completely new charm in these circumstances. Beyond enjoying autonomy, I read eclectically and have taught myself German.

I also find much joy in coaching two of Adelaide's brightest young women goalkeepers. Speaking of goalkeepers, the other keepers in the Adelaide City keeper union also add colour to my life, despite what I tell them; you'll be hard-pressed to find a more tightly knit group.

In closing, it's possible this relates to today's game. I wear old Italian leather boots in wet weather football; the first time I wore them I was asked to return them to the museum. But they were a gift, so they remain my go-to shoes.

CAPTAIN'S MESSAGE

Written by Matthew Halliday

Over the last couple of weeks the team has been working hard at training to get our season back on track.

We finally got back to winning ways defeating West Adelaide 1-0 away from home.

That win has really lifted the players and there's a good feeling going around the change rooms again.

Today we look to continue to build off last week's result when we face South Adelaide.

Last time we played against them they got the better of us and we don't expect anything less than a tough game.

We're aware of their strengths and weaknesses.

If we can minimise the way they play it will go a long way in getting the three points.

WNPL COACH'S MESSAGE

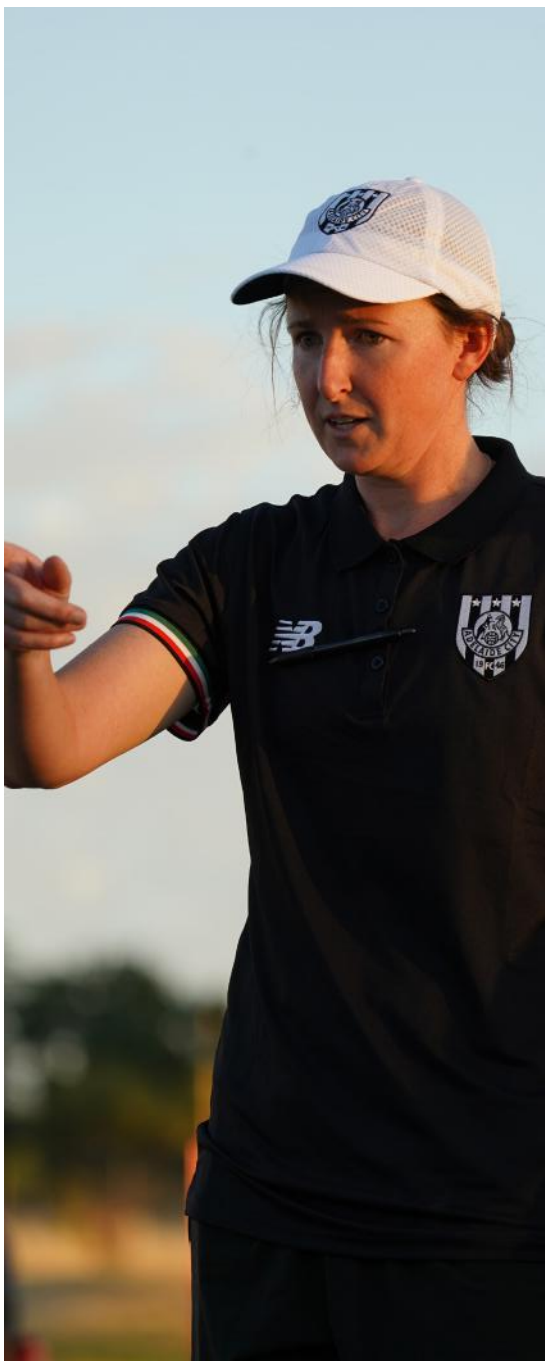

Written by Tiarn Powell

As we come up to the midpoint of the season, coming off a Cup win against rivals West Adelaide 5-3 we look to face up to them again tonight.

West Adelaide have for many years been a huge rival for Adelaide City and over these years created some of the best games in South Australia.

It's fantastic to have such big games throughout the year and we are looking forward to facing them again.

The girls have been working hard, we have come off the back of a couple of wins and finding the back of the net, we hope to continue this form into the second half of the season.

ATALANTA BC COORDINATORS UPDATE

Written by Tony Finamore

Successful 1st Training Clinic Sets the Stage for Domenico's Visit to Adelaide.

The junior coordinators and scouts of Adelaide City organised the highly anticipated first training on May 12 in preparation for the upcoming visit of Domenico Gangemi (Atalanta BC International Scout) to Adelaide on May 29. The event, held at the Adelaide City's junior grounds, saw the enthusiastic participation of 33 junior players who engaged in a series of skill-based stations set up around pitch one.

In just an hour, the clinic focused on enhancing the players' skills, movement, and intensity, laying a solid foundation for the forthcoming visit. The training was meticulously designed to provide the junior players with an opportunity to refine their skills and enhance their overall game. The stations, thoughtfully positioned around pitch one, offered a diverse range of skill-based exercises, ensuring that participants had exposure to various aspects of the game. From dribbling, passing, ball skill drills and tactical awareness exercises, these training sessions are aimed to foster well-rounded players with a strong understanding of the game's intricacies.

Moreover, the emphasis on movement and intensity during the training session was evident. Coaches and trainers facilitated dynamic drills that focused on agility, quick decision-making, and teamwork. This approach not only enhanced the players' physical capabilities but also instilled a sense of camaraderie and cooperation among the participants.

The success of the first training session can be attributed to the careful planning and execution by the coordinators. The vision to create a supportive and challenging environment allowed the young players to thrive and showcase their abilities.

By providing a platform for skill development, the coordinators aimed to lay the groundwork for an enriching experience when Domenico visits Adelaide.

The positive outcomes of the training clinic have set the stage for a promising visit from Domenico. The skill enhancement, heightened intensity, and the camaraderie fostered during the clinic will undoubtedly contribute to a memorable experience for both the junior players and Domenico himself.

The clinic served as a stepping stone, preparing the players for the challenges they may face during Domenico's visit and inspiring them to showcase their talent on the field. The first training session held at Adelaide City junior grounds was a resounding success, with 33 junior players actively participating in skill-based stations.

The session's focus on skills, movement, and intensity exemplified the coordinators' dedication to nurturing well-rounded players.

As anticipation builds for Domenico's visit, the training sessions has laid a strong foundation for the upcoming event, ensuring that the players are fully prepared to make the most of this unique opportunity. The success of the session signifies the commitment of Adelaide City towards the growth and development of junior players, highlighting their dedication to fostering a culture of excellence within the club.

ALYCE'S JOURNEY IN FOOTBALL

Written by Alyce Macauley

My football journey at Adelaide City began in 2017. Upon joining Adelaide City I immediately understood why this club has such a successful reputation and history.

I was very fortunate to have Paul Pezos as my coach as he was fundamental in building the professional culture, high standards and winning mentality for our team.

I still apply these attributes to my football today and I endeavour to share these with the younger players in our team.

I feel very proud and fortunate to have had such success with Adelaide City and to have made so many lifelong friends.

My highlight is winning the treble in 2019.

Reflecting on that team and year, it highlights to me the family culture we have at Adelaide City.

Having Tiarn Powell, a former teammate at Adelaide City, now back as our head coach shows the strong link this club has with individuals.

We also see this with the A-League women's players Dylan Holmes and Isabel Hodgson continuing to return to the club to play following the completion of their season with Adelaide United.

significant part in making the women's program so successful. Franca, Anthony and Daniela Di Bartolo have put a great deal of their own time and effort into the program and I am forever grateful for their ongoing contributions and support.

I am looking forward to the rest of the season and continuing to see our younger players contribute to Adelaide City's history.

Go City!

WHO ARE WE

Known as the Zebras, Adelaide City is a football club based in Adelaide, South Australia.

The club played in the National Soccer League (NSL) for 27 seasons.

We now play in the South Australian National Premier League (NPL SA).

City was founded and is primarily followed by people of Italian heritage, originally called Juventus from 1946 to 1966.

In 1966 we became Adelaide Juventus, and in 1977 Adelaide City, when Frank Lister captained the team in the inaugural Phillips NSL competition.

The club is one of the biggest across the NPL in Australia and arguably the most prominent in South Australia.

Several past and present players, coaches, and administrators of the Black and White have been inducted into the Football South Australia Hall of Fame.

Our impact also extends to the national stage. We have provided a pathway for several past and present Socceroos, Matildas, and a plethora of the best players to play in national competitions across Australia.

Adelaide City also boasts a strong women's program. We pride ourselves on offering the best facilities, quality coaching, and dedicated volunteers for all of our junior and senior programs.
