CITY WOMEN WITH LIZ ZIKOS

Written by Liz Zikos

With the FIFA Women's World Cup kicking off in a matter of days, it is a very exciting time for women in football.

While women's football has made significant progress, there are still challenges to overcome. Issues such as pay equity, investment disparities, and media coverage continue to be areas of focus for improving the women's game.

Overall, women's football and the FIFA Women's World Cup have played vital roles in advancing gender equality, empowering female athletes, and inspiring a new generation of football players. The continued growth and support for women's football are essential for creating a more inclusive and diverse sporting landscape.

At Adelaide City, our aim is to continue to grow our junior base with the aim to develop our future players. This weekend one of our Under 13 teams will be playing in their cup semi-final which is a great achievement considering they were newly promoted to the higher division in their league.

Unfortunately, during the week our Senior Women were knocked out of the WNPL & WSL Cup in a narrow 4-3 semi-final loss to Salisbury Inter. With a tight turnaround, they are up against NTC in their Round 16 clash before a two-week break for the World Cup. The squad is looking forward to the break so they can refresh for the last two rounds of the season before the final playoffs commence.

With the FIFA World Cup on our doorstep, I hope that everyone embraces this once-in-a-lifetime event on Australian soil and supports not only the Matilda's but those teams who are based here in Adelaide.

$50 CLUB CASH BACK

Salena Estate Wines is proud to announce a cash back deal which will help raise money for the junior arm of the Adelaide City Football Club's boys' and girls' teams. For every case of wine sold Salena Estate Wines will donate $50 to Adelaide City's junior arm.

Every case of wine sold will benefit all of Adelaide City's boys and girls as the club looks to regenerate its junior sector with a sponsorship that takes care of children.

2022 Ink Series Sangiovese - Price: $240 per dozen (RRP $360)

CITY MEN WITH ANGE CARROZZA

Written by Angelo Carrozza

Hello and a warm welcome to FK Beograd for today's Round. To our very own Sponsors and fans thank you for your continued and unwavering support throughout this season. We are holding on to 3rd spot tied with Adelaide United, and feel as a group we are better than what the points suggest. Currently without key players, great opportunities have been presented to our younger playing group and seeing so many training with the first team is testament to the quality and enthusiasm our young crop of 18's and Reserves players possess.

Today's fixture will be a challenging affair as we didn't take advantage of our lead in the reverse fixture which saw FK Beograd get over us in the 2nd half and take away the points. As we head into the two week break, we want to assure we remain in third position and prepare our return when we take on Campbelltown City. The run into finals is almost upon us and the challenge has been set for the team to rise and defend the title.

On other football news here at Adelaide City FC, we welcome the coaches from Atalanta whom prepare to take of our juniors and visitors on a football academy experience like no other. The junior boys and girls will be given session plans and drills that are currently implemented by one of the top clubs in Europe when it comes to Junior development. This will add to their football knowledge and expand their knowledge and skillsets which will help them during their football development.

ATALANTA BC COORDINATORS UPDATE

Written by Vince Di Maria

The Italians are coming!

Atalanta BC coaches Mattia Morelli, Luca Sbolli and our very own Domenico Gangemi who is the director of worldwide football scouting and manager of international affiliation Oceania Atalanta BC will be here at Oakden from Monday, July 17.

They're preparing for our July school holiday camp from Tuesday until Friday, for all players that have registered through the link advertised by the club.

What an amazing week it's going to be, to have such experience and knowledge presented to our junior players is a remarkable achievement inspired by Adelaide City's board member Valentino Migliaccio should be commended for his hard work in bringing this history-making affiliation to SA.

Each player will receive an affiliation jersey to remember their experience from their time with this powerhouse development club.

This will be the best opportunity for young enthusiastic players to express themselves in all aspects of the game to these super-international coaches from the other side of the world, something that only a small minority of children can seriously say they've achieved through this tight-knit affiliation.

We, the Adelaide City and Atalanta BC home-based coordinators Tony Finamore, Donny Barilla and yours truly, Vince Di Maria, would like to wish all the registered players the very best next week and hopefully absorb as much as you can during the sessions and most importantly enjoy the moment.

Good luck everyone!

WNPL COACH'S MESSAGE

Written by Tiarn Powell

Over the past few weeks, the team has consistently showcased some great performances, now sitting on third spot on the ladder with only three games remaining in the season.

As the FIFA women's World Cup break approaches, securing a vital victory against Football SA NTC on Wednesday night becomes crucial for the team.

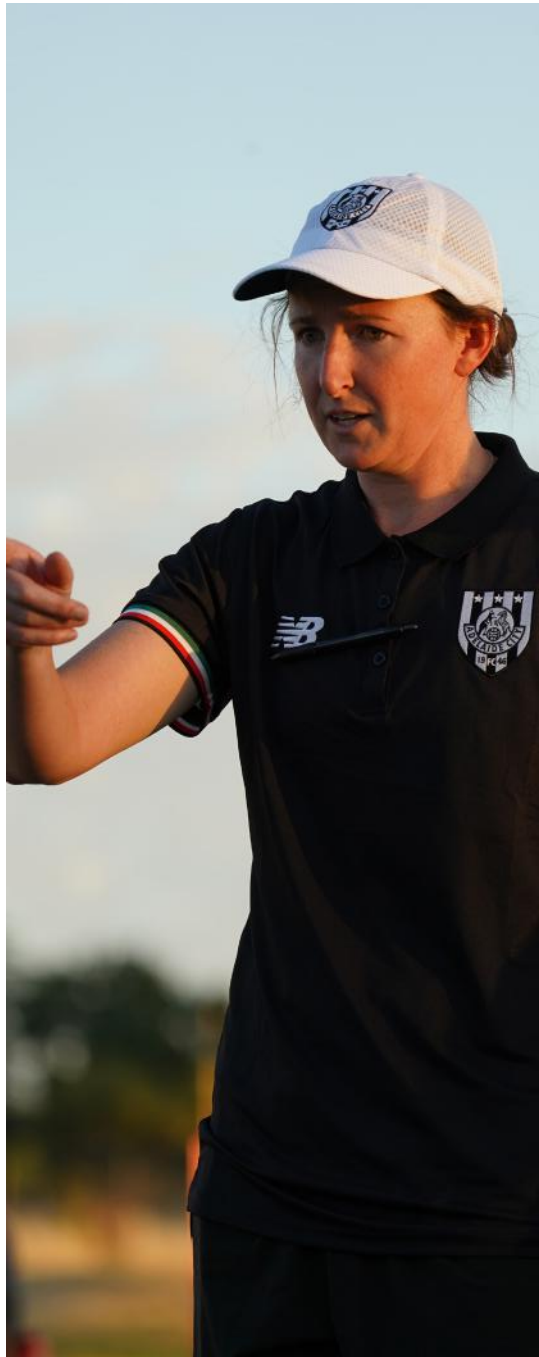

The girls' dedication and determination during this crucial time of the season has been a credit to them.

We have had another young debut from Ines who has proved herself in training and games with the reserves team and rightly deserved an opportunity in the senior team.

Well done Ines Buckley.

Providing young players with opportunities and clear pathways for growth is something I want to keep providing to the club and with the support of Diaz Obieglo my assistant coach, and Josh McLoughney, the reserves coach, we have a bright future of young talented girls on the right journey.

Thank you all so much so for your support this season and hope it can continue.

CHRISSIE'S FOOTBALL JOURNEY

Written by Chrissie Zikos

While many assume that my interest in soccer stems from my mum, I actually discovered the sport on my own. It wasn't until I started playing that I even realized she had a background in soccer.

During my time in primary school, I was always sporty and would join the boys during lunchtime to play soccer. It was through this that I was asked whether I would consider playing soccer, marking the beginning of my journey.

Given that Mum isn't from SA and Dad isn't particularly the sports type, I signed up to play at West Adelaide as it was close to home. Several years were spent playing for this club before being selected for the state program, where I had the opportunity to be in the National Championships.

The choice of coming to Adelaide City was based on their notable Junior Girls Program and a better structured environment. Here I was scouted by WNPL Coach Paul Pezos to play with the WNPL team at 13. Training alongside girls who were much older than me felt intimidating, but I quickly grew to appreciate the level of professionalism and intensity it brought to my game.

While winning silverware at the age of 14 was undoubtedly a memorable moment, what truly shaped me as a player and individual was the privilege of playing alongside players such as Alex Chidiac, Dylan Holmes, and Izzy Hodgson, among many others. Their presence not only enhanced my soccer skills but also instilled in me the values of hard work, resilience, and determination. With not all coaches believing in me, these skills have become valuable in paving the way for my soccer journey.

As a result of these experiences, I have earned the title of a 'utility player,' as I can perform well in various positions on the field. This versatility has allowed me to deepen my soccer knowledge and skills, ultimately securing my place in the squad.

Having Tiarn Powell as my captain from 13 years old, to now her being my coach at 20 is really a full-circle moment. I've looked up to her for a long time and really value the advice she has given me over the years.

Adelaide City has become my second family, as I have literally grown up with everyone, and I can't imagine playing anywhere else.

WHO ARE WE

Known as the Zebras, Adelaide City is a football club based in Adelaide, South Australia.

The club played in the National Soccer League (NSL) for 27 seasons.

We now play in the South Australian National Premier League (NPL SA).

City was founded and is primarily followed by people of Italian heritage, originally called Juventus from 1946 to 1966.

In 1966 we became Adelaide Juventus, and in 1977 Adelaide City, when Frank Lister captained the team in the inaugural Phillips NSL competition.

The club is one of the biggest across the NPL in Australia and arguably the most prominent in South Australia.

Several past and present players, coaches, and administrators of the Black and White have been inducted into the Football South Australia Hall of Fame.

Our impact also extends to the national stage. We have provided a pathway for several past and present Socceroos, Matildas, and a plethora of the best players to play in national competitions across Australia.

Adelaide City also boasts a strong women's program. We pride ourselves on offering the best facilities, quality coaching, and dedicated volunteers for all of our junior and senior programs.
